

COMMUNITY HEALTH ACTION TRUST
449 - 451 Moran House, Willesden, NW10 2JJ
Community Integrated Sexual Health Initiative

Community Health Action Trust (CHAT), based in Willesden, is conducting workshops for faith communities on tuberculosis, sexual health and reproductive health. This research project which aims to engage faith communities is called Community Integrated Sexual Health Initiative (CISHI) and is funded by The King’s Fund.

Target/Catchment areas are:

Brent, Harrow, Ealing, Hammersmith and Fulham, Westminster, Hounslow, Hillingdon, Kensington and Chelsea.

Workshop Objectives

1. To raise awareness on tuberculosis (TB), reproductive health and sexual health
2. To develop a link for faith leaders and their communities to access health services
3. To understand the faith community concerns on health and develop strategies on how we can work together.

Training dates for male faith leaders in 2009 are as follows:

February	11, 18, 25
April	8, 15, 22
June	13, 20, 27
August	12, 19, 26

Time: 9.30am to 3.30pm
